PRE OR POST TOUR ITINERARY

Watching Sunrise & Visit Angkor Wat

Angkor Wat is a busy, crowded place, and as the crown jewel of Khmer architecture, always will be. That's what makes watching sunrise here an even more satisfying experience. Yes, there will be an insane amount of crowds around you, but you'll get an unobstructed, serene, and majestic view of the temples themselves that you could never get at any other time during the day. For the best spot (across the moat, front and center), aim to arrive before 5 am. Cambodia's ancient temple city is one of the wonders of the world. Masterpieces of decorative details as well as of architectural style, its awe-inspiring ruins survive as testament to the spectacular achievements of Southeast Asia's greatest civilization. It is a replica of the universe according to the Hindu mythology.

Visit Bayon Temple

The Bayon is a richly decorated Khmer temple built in the late twelfth or early thirteenth century. Constructed at the centre of King Jayavarman's capital, Angkor Thom, this was the last state temple to be built at Angkor. The Bayon Temple, the only Angkorian state temple, was built primarily as a Mahayana Buddhist shrine dedicated to the Buddha. Following Jayavarman's death, it was modified and augmented by later Hindu and Theravada Buddhist Kings in accordance to their religious preferences.

PRE OR POST TOUR ITINERARY

Visit Ta Prohm Temple

Ta Prohm, a Bayon style temple, is believed to be built in the late twelfth and early thirteenth centuries. It was founded by King Jayavarman VII as a Mahayana Buddhist monastery and university. Unlike most Angkorian temples, Ta Prohm has been left in much the same condition in which it was found where the photogenic and atmospheric combination of trees growing out of the ruins and the jungle surroundings have made it one of Angkor's most popular temples with visitors.

Visit Banteay Srei Temple

Banteay Srei or Banteay Srey (Khmer: ប្រាសាទបន្ទាយស្រី) lends itself to the elaborate decorative wall carvings which are still observable today. The buildings themselves are miniature in scale, unusually so when measured by the standards of Angkorian construction. These factors have made the temple extremely popular with tourists, and have led to its being widely praised as a “precious or the “jewel of Khmer art.

PRE OR POST TOUR ITINERARY

Visit Phnom Bakheng Temple and Watching Sunset

This is a Hindu temple originally built in the form of a mountain temple dedicated to Shiva. Historians believe that Phnom Bakheng was in its heyday, the principal temple of the Angkor region. It was the architectural Yasovarman built when he moved the court from the capital Hariharalaya in the Roluos area located to the southeast. Located atop the hill, Phnom Bakheng is the most popular tourist spot for sunset views of the bigger Angkor Wat temple Which lies amid the jungle about 1.5km to the southeast.

Tonle Sap Biosphere Reserve (Visit Tonle Sap by boat)

Tonle Sap, the largest freshwater lake in the Southeast Asia, is itself a natural wonder. This great lake exists as an ecological anomaly. In the early June, at the start of rainy season, the water level of the Mekong River rises to divert part of its flow off its course to the South China Sea and redirect it into the Tonle Sap. This forces the current to reverse direction, beginning a process that by the end of October will see the great lake increasing its size almost tenfold, making it the largest freshwater body in Southeast Asia.

The tonle Sap Lake, fed by the mighty Mekong and the Tonle Sap Rivers, is a vast expanse of water that forms the most significant topographical feature in Cambodia. This 'Great Lake' represents a people's identity and way of life for the thousands of Cambodians who live on the lake and are dependent on the Tonle Sap and its ebbs and flows to maintain life.

There is a whole community here; besides homes, there is a school, police post, fire station, church and a few restaurants as well. This self-sufficient community of the great lake, known commonly as the floating village of Cambodia, draws crowds daily to observe life and share time in this wonderful neighborhood of the great Tonle Sap Lake.

Visit Preah Vihear Temple

The Preah Vihear Temple is a Khmer temple situated at the top of Poy Tadi, a 525-metre (1720 ft) cliff in the Dangrek Mountains located in the Preah Vihear Province of northern Cambodia. The temple gives its name to Cambodia's Preah Vihear province and is 140 km from Angkor Wat, approximately 320 km from Phnom Penh.

Visit Boeung Mealea Temple

Prasat Beng Mealea was built by king Suryavarman II, early 12th century by primary deity to Vishnu with architecture of Angkor Wat. This temple is located 40 km east of the main group of temples at Angkor, and 77 km from Siem Reap by road.

Visit Koh Ker Temple

Koh Ker was once an ancient capital of Cambodia, located in Srayong Cheung village, Srayong commune, Kulen district, about 49 kilometers west of the provincial town.
